PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Hi, my name is Yehor Kholodiuk.
I am Front-End Developer.
My technologies are ReactJs, JavaScript,TypeScript.
After years of unemployment I found myself in coding.
I have strong will to learn new technologies and achieve new goals and create new things, so this was the reason for me to study Front End development.
I developed reusable components and participated in creation of CRM, SPA and different applications.
After completion of my previous project I worked as a freelancer.
Besides being Front End Developer, I have knowledge and experience in the following Back-End technologies: Databases (Mongo DB, MySQL), REST API, server-side rendering (Express JS).
I have skills to quickly fix usability problems.
I have an experience with some testing tools, like Mocha, Chai and JEST.
I am a qualified professional, who is success oriented and motivated.
I live in Limassol, Cyprus. I have Cyprus citizenship and I don't need Cyprus work permit.
I am always ready to answer all your questions.
Best regards,
Yehor Kholodiuk.
